

An Evening with the Masters

October 22, 2013
by Sarah Stearman

Josiah Stearman (10) and Callaghan McCarty-Snead (8), two young, accomplished chess students from the Berkeley Chess School will represent the United States at the 2013 World Youth Chess Championships in Al-Ain, United Arab Emirates on December 17 - 29.

Top grandmasters, international masters & many other top players will come together for "An Evening with the Masters" to support two bay area chess kids. This exclusive dinner will be full of entertainment and all proceeds will help fund Cal & Josiah's trip to the World Youth Chess championships! Please join us, along with the Berkeley Chess School for a fun night out, to support Callaghan & Josiah.

Josiah Stearman

Callaghan McCarty-Snead

A night of dinner, drinks & chess shenanigans with the masters begins on:

Saturday November 16, 2013
7:00 pm
1581 Le Roy Ave, Berkeley CA 94708
Adults only
$40 per ticket

<http://josiahandcallaghan.weebly.com/>

Special thanks to GM Sam Shankland for donating a one-hour chess lesson to our auction! View the blog he wrote about our event on chess.com.

Come out and bid on a rare lesson with sam as he is no longer coaching after receiving the Samford fellowship!

Http://www.chess.com/blog/shankland/supporting-my-children

What to do with the kids? Childcare available on-site. Register early!